Financial report passed.

October's Minutes passed.

Guest Speaker: FWC Officer Stuart Messman spoke to the club about some of the rules that are enforced by the FWC.

Club Sponsors: Sun City Cafe, The Dog House and Beef O'Brady's of Sun City. Sunny's and Dunkin Donuts choose not to be sponsors. Does the membership have any other suggestions as far as looking for sponsors?

Fish stories: Our usual suspect were at it again. Keep fishing and don't forget to take photo's so we can add them to our website and newsletter.

Website: We are always looking for input from our members, so be sure to mention them.

Every Monday for the rest of November, the Freedom Boat Club/Charter Capt. program will be looking for anglers. See Greg Franczyk for details and availability. It would be nice if some of our newer members were able to take advantage of this opportunity. It was also mentioned that Capt. Doug Martin of Red Devil Fishing Charters has a discounted rate for CAA fishing Club members.

Terry Ricketts spoke about the fishing trip scheduled for Nov. 17, 2015 out of Tarpon Springs. Terry will supply all the details and directions in an upcoming email. Those who choose to carpool are to meet in the parking lot of Beef O'Brady's (Sun City). Look for the email..

Nominations: Jim Valley spoke on the nomination of officers for the upcoming election. At this time, only two positions have had nominations. Secretary and Vice President. No other nominations have come forth. John Carman is stepping down as Secretary and Bob Guzinsky will be stepping down as Vice President. Those positions will be filled by Pam Tebbetts (Secretary) and Terry Ricketts (Vice President). Both positions are uncontested.

A motion was made and passed for the CAAFC to provide $800.00 towards the members cost for fishing trips.

A motion was made and passed for the CAAFC to donate $380 plus an additional $120.00 (beverage sales) for a total of $500.00 to the Ruskin Elks Lodge.

This holiday season, Jim Robinson will have Poinsettias. If interested, please see Jim for information.

The Elks Lodge will have Thanksgiving Dinners - Free. All they ask is that you bring a dish. Please see Mike Schiro to sign up.

Ray Stanley spoke of a raffle to help support the Youth Baseball Program. Proceeds will help send a area baseball team to Cooperstown to play in a tournament. Drawing will be Christmas eve.

The CAA next quarterly dinner will be December 10, 2015 at the Sandpiper. Further details to follow as per Jack Banther.

50/50 $115.00 - Bob ( Nancy ) Preston.

Next meeting will be December 1, 2015.
