Guest Speaker - Flotilla 75 Commander Gary Mull.

Greg Franczyk spoke on the outings with Freedom boat club. The June 26, 2015 trip is full. The next scheduled date is July 13, 2015. 3 people have signed up so far.

Steak/Fish Dinner. Contact Jack Banther for details The date is June 18, 2015 at the Ruskin Elks Home. 35 people have signed up for this event.

Head boat discussion: Club members input needed on where we should go next. Keep an eye out for a email in regards to this issue.

Just a note: Terry Ricketts gives up his stipend when a members joins the FBC and offers it back to the club so more members can get on the water and lower the cost. Thank you Terry for your kindness.

Pam and Buddy Tibblets along with Bob Preston went to the Suncoast Youth Conservation Center to assist with getting the kayaks ready for the kids. An email will be sent out 48 hours before the next "Help needed" session. The next session will be June 1, 2015. Volunteers will be cleaning up the kayak route.

Guy Harvey Fishing Camp/ Dave Ramirez Fishing camp. Members support the idea and a check will be sent to the lads father for $120.00 once proof is shown he is registered.

Anyone with old rods/reels and are looking to get rid of them, please contact Dave Ramirez. Dave will refurbish the gear and supply it to the children from the camp.

Jack Banther has books on fishing for sale.

Due to his health issue, Tom Deptula has offered his fishing trip with Hubbards to be raffled off to the club for $5.00 a tickets. Those proceeds will be given to the club. Remember, the trip must be used before June 15, 2015. Thank you Tom..

The CAA website should be up and standing alone in the next 30-60 days. A thank you to Kevin (the gentleman who allowed CAA to use a sub site). Gift certificate will be sent.
