Treasury and minutes passed.

The CAA Website is up and running. WWW.Castawayanglersclubfl.org is our web address. All future activities will be posted on the website. Ray Stanley gave a quick tutorial on how to navigate the website.

Guest Speaker: Andy Lykens of The Tampa Bay Watch gave a very impressive presentation.

Members were reminded that the Sun Coast Youth Conservation Center is in need of volunteers. Help will be needed on August 4, 2015. An email will be sent a few days before. It will be early in the morning, it will be hot and there will be a lot of bugs.

CAA plan on asking Kathy Guindin to return and give a presentation on Tarpon in the fall of 2015.

The next outing for the Freedom Boat Club will be next week. This outing is already booked with 8 people. Just a reminder. CAA are trying to get everyone in our club to get out on a trip. If you have already gone, please wait until we get those members who have not gone a chance to experience this opportunity.

CAA would like to hold a fish fry, but we have no fish. Hint hint, sounds like we need a fishing trip..

Fish stories from the usual suspects.

Terry Ricketts and Bob Preston have gone to a logo shop in Brandon and had them replicate the logo we'd like to have for our club's shirts. Terry Ricketts had a shirt made up. Please stop by and see Terry's shirt and give your feedback.

Fishing towels. CAA have purchased fishing towels. Each member will receive one towel from the club tonight. Towels will go on sale next meeting for $3.00 a piece.

Giveaway: Filet Knife set - Gary Doss
50/50 - $76.00 - Terry Ricketts, who donated it to the club so we could purchase a rod/reel combo in a raffle.

Tight lines,

Carm.
